CANDIDATES SET FOR HERNDON TOWN COUNCIL ELECTIONS Election Day is November 6

Herndon, VA (June 13, 2018) – Candidates for the office of Mayor and Town Council for the 2019-2020 term are as follows:

Lisa C. Merkel, the town's current Mayor, is running for reelection and is unopposed.

Candidates for the six Town Council seats for the 2019-2020 term include Jennifer K. Baker, Grace Wolf Cunningham, Cesar A. Del Aguila, Pradip Dhakal, Signe V. Friedrichs, W. J. "Sean" Kenis, Jr, William J. "Bill" McKenna, Sheila A. Olem, Joseph T. "Joe" Plummer and Roland Taylor. Baker, Cunningham, Friedrichs, McKenna and Olem serve on the current Town Council.

Election Day is Tuesday, November 6, 2018. Polling locations for town elections correlate with locations for national elections, which are also held that day.

Residents of the Town of Herndon who are eligible but not registered to vote must do so by October 15. Completed applications must be received postmarked or delivered by 5 pm to the General Registrar, 12000 Government Center Parkway, Suite 323, Fairfax, Virginia, 22035-0081. Completed online applications are due by 11:59 pm. Register online at <https://vote.elections.virginia.gov/Registration>.

To apply for an absentee ballot by mail, the Fairfax County Office of Elections must receive an absentee ballot application from a qualified voter by mail, fax or online by 5 pm on October 30 or in person no later than 5 pm on November 3. (The registrar's office highly recommends submitting applications well prior to the deadline, due to timeliness issues with USPS mail delivery.) Absentee ballot applications may also be obtained in person at the Fairfax County Office of Elections. Applications are available at county government centers and libraries or may be downloaded at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/elections. Voter registration forms and absentee ballot applications also are available in the Town Clerk's office, 777 Lynn Street, Herndon, (703) 435-6804, town.clerk@herndon-va.gov.

To determine if you are eligible to vote absentee and for more information, visit www.fairfaxcounty.gov/elections.
