COMSTOCK WITHDRAWS HPRB APPLICATIONS

Town remains in discussions with Comstock

Herndon, VA (July 27, 2018) – On June 18, 2018, the Herndon Heritage Preservation Review Board (HPRB) awarded three Certificates of Appropriateness to Comstock Herndon Venture LC in relation to downtown redevelopment.

The town received appeals from three citizens on the HPRB awards.

As a result, Comstock Herndon Venture LC decided to withdraw its applications for these certificates. They indicated an intent to resubmit an application to the HPRB at a later date.

The town remains in discussions with Comstock Herndon Venture LC regarding the pathway forward for downtown redevelopment.
